No part of this publication may be reproduced or used for commercial purposes without the written permission of NALC save that councils in membership of One Voice Wales have permission to edit and use the model standing orders in this publication for their governance purposes.

These model standing orders update the National Association of Local Council's (NALC) model standing orders contained in "Local Councils Explained" by Meera Tharmarajah (© 2013 NALC). This publication contains new model standing orders which reference new legislation introduced after 2013 when the last model standing orders were published.

Model standing orders that are in bold type contain legal and statutory requirements. It is recommended that councils adopt them without changing them or their meaning. Model standing orders not in bold are designed to help councils operate effectively but they do not contain statutory requirements so they may be adopted as drafted or amended to suit a council's needs. It is NALC's view that all model standing orders will generally be suitable for councils.
